

CALL FOR PAPERS

The Seventh Biennial Conference of the Reception Study Society

The Saint Paul Hotel and St. Catherine University

Sept. 21-23, Saint Paul, MN

The Reception Study Society promotes informal and formal exchanges between scholars in several related fields: reader-response criticism and pedagogy, reception history, history of reading and the book, audience and communication studies, institutional studies, and gender, race, ethnic, sexuality, postcolonial, religious, and other studies.

We welcome presentations on all aspects of reception studies, but this year we especially encourage papers and panels on the theme: "Feminist Reception: Celebrating Thirty Years," which commemorates the women's march on Washington as well as the publication of books like Gender and Reading, the anthology by Beth Flynn and Patsy Schweickart, who will be speaking at the conference.

Inquiries and proposals for panels and papers in any of these areas are now welcome. Please submit proposals of 250 words or less, along with a one-page CV to Professor Daniel Morris at dmorris@purdue.edu by June 1, 2017. For information about the RSS, including membership information, past conferences, and the journal, please visit our website: receptionstudy.org.
